

PRESS RELEASE

LATEST NEWS FROM DORCHESTER COLLECTION FOR SUMMER 2024

London, June 27, 2024 – Dorchester Collection's global portfolio of iconic hotels are redefining summer luxury with a curated collection of new bespoke experiences. Guests can enjoy an exclusive Dioriviera pop-up at The Beverly Hills Hotel and indulge in new culinary concepts at Hotel Bel-Air in Los Angeles, or discover floral displays at The Dorchester and an alfresco 'Bubbledogs at 45' pop-up at 45 Park Lane across the pond in London. Other European experiences include revitalising new wellness treatments and Olympics programming at Hotel Plaza Athénée and Le Meurice in Paris, and an elite yachting excursion from Hotel Eden in Rome. Meanwhile in Dubai, at newly opened The Lana, guests can immerse themselves in a haven of art and gastronomy.

THE BEVERLY HILLS HOTEL, BEVERLY HILLS

Following last year's success, The Beverly Hills Hotel welcomes back its captivating collaboration with Dior this summer. Guests can once again discover the joy of escape and 'art de vivre' with the pop-up boutique showcasing the new Dioriviera capsule collection. Inspired by the allure of a Mediterranean beach vacation, this immersive poolside takeover features a curated selection of classic Dior decor in bright, coral-pink fabrics. New this year, Dior also has a residency within the hotel's spa, transforming three treatment rooms in the same coral pink tones with toile de Jouy Soleil design accents. The expansion of the collaboration into the spa this summer allows guests to enjoy six signature Dior face and body treatments.

HOTEL BEL-AIR, LOS ANGELES

Hotel Bel-Air launches its next chapter of culinary excellence under the direction of new culinary director, Michelin-starred Joe Garcia, with a renewed focus on local ingredients at The Restaurant and the introduction of two new culinary concepts set to debut in July: The Living Room, a new take on the quintessential Lobby Lounge experience serving afternoon tea, evening cocktails and small bites; and Patisserie, a nostalgic, French-inspired bakery elegantly presenting freshly baked pastries, breads and cakes.

Hotel Bel-Air's 'Movies Under the Stars' series also returns this summer amidst the hotel's decorated gardens, screening cinema classics including Dirty Dancing, Jurassic Park and Back to the Future. The hotel's outdoor cinematic experience includes a tempting menu of themed culinary delights also by Joe Garcia and gourmet desserts from Executive Pastry Chef, Christophe Rull, in addition to a selection of signature cocktails.

THE LANA, DUBAI

The Lana, Dorchester Collection's newest hospitality offering, introduces The Gallery this summer, a new culinary concept by world-renowned pastry chef Angelo Musa. This sophisticated lobby lounge space offers a journey of indulgence with an extensive menu of culinary delights and over 30 artisanal teas, meticulously prepared by two certified tea sommeliers who are also masters of performing traditional matcha tea ceremonies. Drawing inspiration from the timeless of British ritual, The Gallery also offers an ever-sophisticated Afternoon Tea experience, enhanced by a curated selection of artworks by local and globally renowned artists.

THE DORCHESTER, LONDON

The Dorchester is in full bloom as it recently kicked off its summer season with an immersive AR experience capturing the magic of The Dorchester Rose, which was developed exclusively for the hotel by in-house designer florist Philip Hammond and Meijer Roses. A QR code located outside The Dorchester Garden unlocks an Instagram filter that transforms the hotel's façade into a blossoming masterpiece of pale pink roses. What's more, The Dorchester Garden, in partnership with premium alcohol-free sparkling brand Wild Idol, blossoms into a pink paradise with pretty parasols and the introduction of a Wild Idol spritz stand to help cool off on the warmer days. A brand-new Dorchester ice cream trolley offers seasonal serves alongside a delicate adaptation of afternoon tea from The Promenade.

45 PARK LANE, LONDON

45 Park Lane welcomes back the renowned Champagne and hotdog concept Bubbledogs for a special alfresco pop-up at CUT Out this summer – 'Bubbledogs at 45'. The special menu features gourmet hotdogs and grower Champagne pairings, crafted in collaboration with 45 Park Lane's executive chef Elliott Grover and the culinary minds behind Bubbledogs and two Michelin-starred Kitchen Table, Sandia Chang and James Knappett. Guests can indulge in this unique culinary experience daily for lunch and dinner until September 29.

COWORTH PARK, ASCOT

Coworth Park invites guests to embrace the summer season with alfresco dining in The Barn, recently relaunched this year with a brand-new kitchen introducing a new produce-led, ingredient-focused menu. Guided by seasonal ingredients from the UK's best producers, the menu features executive chef Adam Smith's take on British classics and encourages a convivial, relaxed style of dining. Guests can choose to dine in the large outdoor drawing room terrace or at the property's Lawn Bar, which welcomes guests to enjoy a refreshing retreat amidst the estate's picturesque gardens.

HÔTEL PLAZA ATHÉNÉE, PARIS

Drawing inspiration from the sea, Hôtel Plaza Athénée celebrates the summer season with the opening of La Terrasse Montaigne, unveiling a new menu by chef Jean Imbert that highlights shellfish, oysters, and crustaceans expertly paired with a selection of Veuve Clicquot champagnes. With the iconic Eiffel Tower providing the perfect backdrop, the restaurant welcomes guests to dine on a wooden deck surrounded by vibrant geraniums.

Ahead of this summer's Olympic Games, Hôtel Plaza Athénée teamed up with Mathieu Forget, aka Forgetmat, a renowned photographer known for his levitation art. Celebrating the fusion of art and sports, Forget created five distinct photographic compositions set within the hotel's iconic spaces.

Furthermore, guests can anticipate the return of the open-air immersive culinary cinema experience from June 30 to July 4, where each film is paired with a themed menu created in collaboration with the MK2 cinema group.

LE MEURICE, PARIS

Le Meurice invites guests to revel in the vibrant spirit of summer with 'Les Jeudis du Dalí,' lively musical events hosted on Thursday evenings at Restaurant Le Dalí. Accompanied by a live DJ set, award-winning mixologist Margot Lecarpentier reimagines classic cocktails tableside, crafting retro-modern creations on a dedicated cocktail cart live in front of guests.

To celebrate the summer season and upcoming Olympic Games, the spa at la Maison Valmont pour Le Meurice introduces a limited-time Vitality & Serenity treatment for the body and face. A combination of massage and facial treatments, the experience utilizes Valmont's signature products and techniques to revitalize both body and mind. As a complement to the treatment, guests are invited to experience Le Meurice's new wellness menus curated by Chef Clémentine Bouchon at Restaurant Le Dalí.

The 75-minute treatment is priced at €280 and is available from June 1 to September 8. Full package includes a wellness meal (from a choice of three menus) at Restaurant Le Dalí for €420.

What's more, Le Meurice has partnered with Parisian fashion house Walk in Paris to create "Le Meurice x Walk in Paris," an exclusive unisex capsule collection that seamlessly blends urban chic with vintage elegance.

HOTEL EDEN, ROME

Hotel Eden's 'Summer Yachting Experience' returns this summer with daily excursions to Ponza featuring private helicopter transfers and skippered yacht tours of the island's hidden coves and beaches. All summer long, the experience provides guests with a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to discover the magnificent coves and beaches of Ponza usually inaccessible by foot or car. Additional offerings include a skipper on board, and back at the hotel, a glorious three-course dinner at Il Giardino Ristorante to complete this unique day trip.

Art enthusiasts will be delighted by the 'Timeless Time' exhibition at La Libreria, showcasing iconic portraits of renowned figures by Vincent Peters. Hotel Eden hosts the exclusive black and white portraits of Monica Bellucci, Penelope Cruz, Emma Watson and Adriana Lima until August 25.

Furthermore, until the end of September, Hotel Eden continues its partnership with Circolo Canottieri Roma, a private members club located in the prestigious Parioli neighbourhood. Circolo Canottieri Roma provides hotel guests complimentary exclusive access to their grounds which feature a heated infinity pool, pool bar and restaurant. In addition, Circolo Canottieri Roma offers a summer camp for children from ages 5-14, until July 28 from 7:30 am to 5:30 daily, Monday to Friday at a daily charge of €65 per day inclusive of snacks, lunch, water sports and fun activities.

HOTEL PRINCIPE DI SAVOIA, MILAN

Hotel Principe di Savoia offers a taste of Italian summer in the Veranda garden, open on weekends throughout June and July. Guests can savour summer specialties including lobster salad, a tartare trilogy paired with chilled Champagne or signature cocktails, and an ice cream cart of freshly made delights. The Acanto garden opened at the end of May for alfresco dining, featuring Chef Matteo Gabrielli's new à la carte menu with the finest spring and summer flavours. From June to September, weekend lunches offer grilled dishes and salads alongside the à la carte options. Guests can also embrace the Milanese tradition of aperitivo with a Spritz-to-go from il Salotto, perfect for an evening stroll.
