

EQUESTRIAN

AT COWORTH PARK

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- When participating in any equestrian activity, we advise you to ensure you have personal accident insurance. Riding is a risk sport.
- No dogs allowed in the stables or riding areas.
- No smoking allowed in the stable areas.
- You are required to wear a riding hat approved to current safety standards whenever participating in riding activities or handling horses. The chin strap must always be fastened when riding.
- Suitable clothing must be worn when riding and around the horses. Legs must be covered and we recommend you also cover your arms. You should wear gloves with grip and suitable footwear with a small heel and low tread. Please do not wear jewellery or loose clothing around the horses.
- All riders under the age of 16 and adults participating in jumping lessons must wear body protectors. You will be offered a body protector prior to your ride.
- If you do not have the required safety equipment, Coworth Park will provide suitable hats, boots, half chaps, gloves and body protectors.
- All instructors are trained and competent to teach at their detailed level, as well as being first aid trained.
- Please arrive in good time before your booked session time to be fitted for riding equipment, as we cannot extend lesson times for those who arrive late.

BOOKING AND CANCELLATION POLICY

- Bookings will not be confirmed until the rider information form has been completed and returned to the equestrian team.
- In the event of cancellation, we ask that you provide 48 hours' notice or seven days in the case of weekly bookings. For late cancellations and no-shows, the full price of the lesson will be charged.
