

PRESS RELEASE

ROYAL ASCOT MENU AT THE GRILL BY TOM BOOTON

London, April 08, 2024— The Dorchester’s fabled modern British restaurant, The Grill by Tom Booton, will be returning to Royal Ascot for a third year running this June. Tom Booton, one of London’s most exciting chefs, has designed an exclusive four-course menu that can be enjoyed by Royal Enclosure Members at Royal Ascot, and for the very first time, the menu will also be available to guests at The Grill by Tom Booton in the lead up to the royal meeting.

At The Grill by Tom Booton, the Royal Ascot menu will be available from 3 to 17 June 2024, and will showcase the best of seasonal British ingredients with Tom’s signature creative flair. The dining experience will start with snacks of Mackerel taco, dashi and shiso and Lamb belly skewer with green peppercorn. These will be followed by a starter of Cured salmon, gazpacho, cucumber and fennel, and a main course of Beef fillet, stuffed potato, mushroom chutney and chive mayonnaise. A seasonal take on Tom’s famed soft serve ice cream will provide the perfect sweet conclusion to the menu, with Raspberries and cream soft serve, mint, and sprinkles.

The Royal Ascot menu at The Grill by Tom Booton will provide London diners with a taste of the Royal Ascot experience, as excitement builds in the run-up to the famous races. The menu will be available at The Grill by Tom Booton from 3 to 17 June, except for Sundays, priced at £100pp for four courses.
