45 Park Lane welcomes artists Christian Furr and Gered Mankowitz for an exclusive collaboration

Dorchester Collection's contemporary Mayfair hotel, 45 Park Lane is delighted to announce its latest upcoming exhibition by the royal artist Christian Furr and Godfather of rock photography Gered Mankowitz from Thursday, June 15 to Saturday, August 05. Fusing Mankowitz's iconic photographs with Furr's distinctive painting style the work features never seen before original prints of The Rolling Stones, Jimi Hendrix and Kate Bush.

The title of the exhibition, 45RPM, 45 Revolutions per minute, is a nod to Mankowitz's background in music. Gered started working with the Rolling Stones in 1965; he toured America with them and produced several album covers for the band. Gered also captured some of the world's other most iconic musicians, who made their careers with single sales ('45's) and the revolutionary power of art.

Furr's work can be found in the third floor suites and bedrooms at 45 Park Lane as one of the hotels longest standing permanent artists. Known originally as a colourist and a consummate paint-handler, in recent years Furr's has explored collaborations with other artists.

In honour of the upcoming exhibition, head bartender at BAR 45, Maurizio Palermo, has created five bespoke cocktail offerings to toast to our guests. Created around the colour palette of Furr & Mankowitz's work the five cocktails are also named in homage to the exhibition.
