The Beverly Hills Hotel introduces inspired new gift items and specialty keepsakes

Banana-leaf clad sneakers by Koio and George Esquivel, a pajama collection by Shhh Silk and a plush bellman teddy bear are among the collection of recently added items

With its familiar pink facade and green and white stripes, the hotel's signature aesthetic celebrates LA's alluring lifestyle, while its iconic banana leaf print has been touted as one of the world's most recognizable wallpapers. Together, these beloved design elements provide the perfect inspiration for whimsical keepsakes and thoughtful gifts.

Included among the extensive selection of specialty gift items offered in the Logo Shop and e-shop on-line are:

Festive Footwear – Luxury sneaker brand Koio Collective recently designed the hotel's very first sneaker using the popular banana leaf print. This collaboration includes low and high tops showcasing the vibrant and colorful pattern that has become synonymous with the Pink Palace.

Apolis Bags – This reusable Apolis Market Bag, showcasing the hotel's logo and banana leaf design, is stylish and sturdy. The bag features a waterproof lining and natural vegetable-tanned leather straps, reinforced by antique nickel rivets, making it the perfect bag for trips to the farmer's market or the grocery store.

These adorable stuffed animals feature The Beverly Hills Hotel's familiar bellman uniform. Made from only the finest materials, each Steiff plush animal is meticulously hand-sewn and finished by a staff of talented artisans in Giengen, Germany.

The hotel's most popular gift items also make great gifts, bathing suits, towels and nightgowns clad in stripes of pink and blue are as whimsical as they are practical, and dog lovers will appreciate the canine couture selections as well as dog bowls, collars and beds featuring the hotel's logo. It's also only fitting that the Pink Palace offers an array of gift items for babies, toddlers and older children.
