Coworth Park is the only hotel in the UK where guests can practice or learn to play polo and enjoy the spectacle of world-class polo events taking place within its grounds. The hotel's high-goal polo fields and fixtures, rated amongst the highest in the world, are managed by Guards Polo Club. Internationally-renowned, Guards Polo Club has hosted world-class polo events for over 60 years and has historically, played host to Her Majesty The Queen, HRH Prince Philip, HRH Prince Charles, HRH The Duke of Cambridge and HRH Prince Harry. Popular fixtures held at Coworth Park include the influential Coworth Park Challenge.

In 2012, hotel and club established 'Guards Polo Academy at Coworth Park', which aims to introduce this increasingly accessible and popular sport to non-players through the Academy's private and leisure experiences, allowing polo enthusiasts of all levels to get a true taste for the game with one hour lessons starting from £175.

Follow up the experience with a 'hard as hooves' manicure or 'hot to trot' pedicure at The Spa at Coworth Park.
