EVERY DOG HAS ITS DAY WITH GRAY MALIN'S NEW FINE ART PHOTOGRAPHY SERIES AT THE BEVERLY HILLS HOTEL

Photographer Gray Malin has once again teamed up with The Beverly Hills Hotel for his latest fine art series, Dogs at The Beverly Hills Hotel. Captured on the iconic grounds of the hotel, this series embraces timeless glamour with a playful twist. Gray welcomes you to a fantasy world of over twenty different dog breeds in vintage cars, designer accessories, and custom costumes at notable locations throughout the property. Discover a driving Poodle dressed in pink, a pampered Pug in a bungalow, a Chow Chow dining at the Cabana Cafe, and many more beloved canines enjoying a five-star stay in this joyful collection.

"Returning to The Beverly Hills Hotel to photograph the dogs collection was the perfect mix of humor and glamour, luxury and fantasy," says Gray Malin. "Dogs are universally loved and I'm thrilled to release this whimsical series that celebrates our four legged friends."

"Realizing the personal and intangible bond between people and their pooches, The Beverly Hills Hotel overlooks no detail to ensure a pet's stay is as luxurious as that of its owner, which is why Gray Malin's Dogs at The Beverly Hills Hotel is so fitting for us. The shoot was quite entertaining and the photos capture the fun that can be had by all at The Beverly Hills Hotel... even our Pink Palace Pooches!" says Edward Mady, Regional Director West Coast USA and General Manager.
