

PRESS RELEASE

HOTEL BEL-AIR AND THE HOUSE OF SUNTORY PRESENT AN EXCLUSIVE JAPANESE WHISKY TASTING EVENT

Los Angeles, March 10, 2023 – Hotel Bel-Air and the celebrated House of Suntory are introducing an insightful whisky tasting class on April 5 from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm to showcase the celebrated brand’s premium selections. Suntory whisky embodies the harmony that exists between Japan’s nature and its people, and it is this unique fusion that establishes their award-winning products as an art form. Brand Ambassador, Jonathan Armstrong, will share a brief history of Suntory whisky production and characteristics of the various regions. Participants will discover and appreciate various whiskeys and also learn about distillation, maturation, blending and other secrets behind each whisky.

The 90-minute class, priced at $200 per person, will take place in the Private Dining Room at Hotel Bel-Air. The extensive collection of quality single-malt and American whiskeys offered at Hotel Bel-Air include popular labels as well as coveted rare finds for true whisky aficionados. Spirits 25 years and older are also available, and all selections are served in handcrafted Baccarat crystal glasses.

ABOUT THE HOUSE OF SUNTORY

Since 1923, as the pioneer of Japanese whisky, Suntory Whisky has been renowned for its House of Master Blenders and for their Art of Blending. The founding father of Japanese whisky, Shinjiro Torii, dreamt of creating an authentically Japanese whisky by choosing a terrain and climate completely different to that of Scotland, thereby cultivating unique conditions for maturation. With respect to heritage and a commitment to innovation, third generation master Blender Shingo Torii, and grandson of Shinjiro, now leads this most highly awarded House of Japanese Whisky.
