Hotel Bel-Air's stylish wedding program features enchanting events in lush settings and specialty catering by Wolfgang Puck's culinary team

Los Angeles, CA – Heralded as one of the nation's most romantic hideaways, Dorchester Collection's Hotel Bel-Air features a wedding program focused on customization, idyllic settings and impeccable service. From its gazebo overlooking Swan Lake, to surrounding lush gardens and romantic foot bridges, to reception cuisine prepared by Wolfgang Puck's culinary team, wedding couples and their guests are surrounded by a spectacular floral landscape that blooms year round.

Considered one of the most romantic parts of the grounds, Hotel Bel-Air's Swan Lake has long been popular for wedding ceremonies. Brides proceed to the altar from an enchanting grotto, where streaks of sunlight stream through century-old coastal redwoods amid the sounds of a trickling stone fountain. Picturesque arches, bridges and gazebos lend to the fairy-tale ambience of the setting, as guests are greeted with passed champagne and hors d' oeuvres and then seated beneath a canopy of trees and cascading branches surrounding a bride's pathway strewn with flower petals. With Wolfgang Puck's culinary team overseeing the hotel's entire food and beverage operation, including all private events and functions, the menu offerings are just as memorable as the special day itself. From custom-designed cocktails and menus, to specialty garden wedding cakes that perfectly reflect the hotel's scenic sense of place, no detail is left to chance.

Outdoor experiences are just one part of Hotel Bel-Air's new wedding offering. The new Garden Ballroom has been expanded to host receptions up to 200 guests, and a designated stage for bands and built-in LED lights to enliven the color scheme have been introduced.

The wedding couple can book a full schedule of wedding-related activities directly at Hotel Bel-Air, allowing the wedding party to enjoy a rehearsal dinner in the elegantly-redesigned Palm Room or the outdoor Garden Ballroom Terrace, post-wedding brunch at the new Wolfgang Puck at Hotel Bel-Air, or a pre-ceremony bridesmaids' indulgence at the exclusive Enclave at La Prairie Spa. Specialty spa services offered exclusively for the wedding party include The Bel Air Bride Package, Bachelorette Bliss and Groom the Grooms.
