

Press Release

Acanto Chef: Alessandro Buffolino

Alessandro Buffolino had been appointed Acanto Chef of the Hotel Principe di Savoia in March 2016.

Despite his youth, he has worked at a variety of Michelin starred restaurants.

A native of Benevento, Buffolino comes to Hotel Principe di Savoia with a lengthy haute cuisine background developed in many exclusive restaurants in Italy and abroad.

He began his career in Rome and then in France with the renowned Chefs Pierre Orsi and Michel Guerard at Eugenie Les Bains, 3 Michelin star restaurant since 1977.

In France Buffolino learned many experimental techniques that now he uses for signature dishes.

Buffolino returned to Italy in 2012 to collaborate at the reopening of the new restaurant at Hotel Eden in Rome, where he achieved the prestigious Michelin star.

Buffolino will personally preside over the Acanto kitchen, he has created a new menu based on high quality and traditional products reinvented with new and experimental cooking methods.

He uses local and seasonal products together with innovative techniques: a perfect bond between tradition and modernity to satisfy an Italian and international clientele.
