Hotel Principe di Savoia reopened Event Spaces

Dorchester Collection's Milanese property, Hotel Principe di Savoia, has renovated the hotel's event spaces that have been relaunched in early September 2018.

The banqueting rooms at Hotel Principe di Savoia have been redesigned with new fabrics, colours and technology, all the while maintaining the timeless elegance for which the hotel is renowned.

Milanese interior design studio, Architetture & Interni, oversaw the project. With lighter curtains and removal of the wooden paneling, the event spaces have been transformed with increased natural light shining into the rooms. The restoration combined light creams, beiges and golds to create a magical space ideal for corporate, leisure and social events.

Having welcomed a variety of glamorous events – including celebrity birthday parties where the hosts arrived by horse-drawn carriage, high profile charity dinners and beautifully decorated ceremonies – the new event spaces at Hotel Principe di Savoia will continue to showcase the inspired creativity of the hotel's team.
