Hotel Bel-Air to host exclusive dinner in celebration of International Women's Day with ZIATA Wines

Los Angeles, CA – On Wednesday, March 18th, an incredible lineup of female chefs from Wolfgang Puck at Hotel Bel-Air, and chef Hillary from Michelin-star CUT, will host an exclusive six-course dinner in partnership with Napa Valley label ZIATA. The one-night-only International Women's Day event will take place in the restaurant from 6:30 to 9:30 pm, and the cost to attend is $225 per person.

Participating chefs for the event include Tiffany Pascua, executive pastry chef at Hotel Bel-Air, Hilary Henderson, chef de cuisine at CUT Beverly Hills, Gel Zara, sous chef at Hotel Bel-Air, and Yesenia Gonzalez, sous chef at Hotel Bel-Air. Participating food purveyors will be Rhonda Rago from Vesta Foodservice, Julee Harman from Ocean Jewels, and Stephanie Mutz from Sea Stephanie Fish.

Karen Cakebread launched ZIATA Wines - named for her beloved mother Mary Annunziata Webb—in 2008 with a widely revered Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir. Today, the collection also includes the Mia Madre Red Blend, a moving tribute to Karen's mom. ZIATA focuses on small-lot, high quality wines from Napa Valley and Sonoma County. More information on Karen and ZIATA Wines can be found here: <https://www.ziatawines.com/>.

International Women's Day (March 8) is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating women's equality. International Women's Day (IWD) has occurred for well over a century, with the first IWD gathering in 1911 supported by over a million people. Today, IWD belongs to all groups collectively everywhere.
