In the comfortable lounge of La Libreria, the hotel's elegant lobby lounge bar, "Said dal 1923" chocolate will be offered in a range of scrumptious flavours, starting from Valentine's Day, with an irresistible and indulgent menu, the perfect gift to share with loved ones.

Guests and Romans can enjoy, from Monday to Saturday, one of the world's most loved ingredients in a whole host of delicacies: hot dark chocolate and gianduja with toppings and spices such as star anise, crushed pistachios, ginger, chilli or crispy puffs; a special cappuccino with three chocolates; a selection of pralines and truffles; petite patisserie, biscuits and chocolate-coated ginger, orange and lemon zest; strawberries with chocolate and champagne and the typical Italian dessert of Tiramisu, revisited by Hotel Eden's Executive Chef Fabio Ciervo and created on the spot.

On this day dedicated to romance, a special dessert of Madagascar chocolate mousse with a heart of cherry - a delicate treat that is impossible to resist - will be available.

An elegant and captivating trolley of delights will allow guests to admire the chocolate specialties of "Said dal 1923" along with creations by Fabio Ciervo and Pastry Chef Ezio Redolfi. The impeccable service of Hotel Eden, having always been distinguished by its care and attention, will accompany guests during the experience, transporting them to a dimension in which taste and pleasure are at the centre.

Thanks to the history of "Said dal 1923", the emotion and joy of chocolate reach all of the senses, conferring well-being whilst offering a great mood-boost.

A little break that will make winter even sweeter, to be savoured in a sophisticated environment embellished with precious marble and golden details.
