Jean Imbert au Plaza Athénée receives its first Michelin star, just nine weeks after opening

Dorchester Collection's Hôtel Plaza Athénée is delighted that Michelin has awarded its gastronomic restaurant Jean Imbert au Plaza Athénée one star in its 2022 France guide. The prestigious accolade comes just nine weeks after the restaurant first opened its doors in January 2022.

Inspired by the great traditions of French gastronomy, chef Jean Imbert has sought to recapture the splendour of its culinary art with recipes that have shaped the golden age of gastronomy across the world, whilst remaining deeply modern.

The Michelin guide recognised the restaurant not only for its creativity, but also for its 'precise and warm service', which underline the importance of a flawless partnership between the kitchen and dining room.

Chef Jean Imbert is proud to share the accolade with his team: executive chef Jocelyn Herland, assistant head chef Mathieu Emerald, restaurant director Denis Courtiade, executive pastry chef Angelo Musa, pastry chef Elisabeth Hot as well as Francois Delahaye, general manager of the hotel and chief operating officer for Dorchester Collection, and all the teams of Hôtel Plaza Athénée.

Jean Imbert is also the executive chef at the hotel's iconic brasserie Le Relais Plaza.
