Press Release

November 2017

Executive chef Fabio Ciervo at Hotel Eden's La Terrazza has been awarded a Michelin Star by The Michelin Guide Italy, 2018

Rome, Italy – Hotel Eden, Dorchester Collection's iconic property in Rome, is delighted to announce that executive chef Fabio Ciervo of restaurant La Terrazza, has been awarded a Michelin Star; only seven months after its reopening following the hotel's restoration. The highly sought-after accreditation was presented by the Italian edition of the renowned Michelin Guide on Thursday, November 16, 2017.

A native of Italy, Fabio Ciervo was exposed to food at a very young age and started his training to become a chef at the age of 14. In 2003, Fabio Ciervo began his career at Hotel Eden as Adriano Cavagnini's executive sous-chef. He then worked abroad alongside chef Heston Blumenthal and Thomas Keller, and acquired further international experience until 2010, when he returned to Hotel Eden as La Terrazza and Il Giardino's executive chef. Whilst the hotel underwent a 17 month restoration, he obtained a Master's degree in nutrition.

During this time, Fabio Ciervo worked very closely with the hotel's architects and designers to create the perfect kitchen for La Terrazza, with breathtaking views over the Eternal City. He also developed a new cooking philosophy based on the following five pillars: innovation, wellness, ingredients, taste and art.

Executive chef Fabio Ciervo, comments: 'I'm honoured to have received such an important distinction. I will pay tribute to this prestigious award by continuing to experiment with new ideas and further cultivating my passion for cooking. I would like to share the Michelin Star with my whole team and the restaurant staff, who are passionate and committed to providing a memorable experience for our national and international guests on a daily basis.'

As seen in some of Fabio Ciervo's most acclaimed dishes, research and creativity are key to his cuisine. Guests dining at La Terrazza can enjoy his signature spaghetti with Pecorino and Madagascan wild black pepper, flavoured with rose buds; all the whilst admiring the spectacular views across Rome, including St Peter's Dome.
