Family fun at The Dorchester: making the most of summer in London

(London) This summer, The Dorchester invites families to make the most of a staycation in London with special experiences for the whole family.

The Dorchester will create fun-filled itineraries for children from a cooking class in the kitchens to a day in the life of a real prince or princess with a special car ride to Buckingham Palace in a classic Rolls Royce. For parents dreaming of a sumptuous dinner for two, The Dorchester team will keep the children entertained whilst they enjoy one of the hotel's acclaimed restaurants including recently launched: The Dorchester Rooftop.

As the hotel overlooks Hyde Park, families can make the most of the summer days with picnics and treasure hunts around the park. After a long day sightseeing, bike-riding, horse-riding or exploring Hyde Park, families can unwind with a cosy movie night in as The Dorchester team will transform the room to create a truly luxurious cinema experience with movie snacks, dessert buffet, an unlimited movie library and hot chocolate. For little adventurers, the room can be turned into a camping adventure, with children's den, special tents and treats aplenty.

From June, a very special Children's Afternoon Tea inspired by a day out in London will be available at The Promenade at The Dorchester, featuring a fanciful feast of milkshakes, bite-size sandwiches, and cakes with chocolate and sprinkles a plenty.

The Dorchester has also partnered with Sharky & George to launch a fun-filled Kids Club, available for guests' children to attend between 12.30 – 4pm on Saturdays throughout July and August. Each session costs £50 per child and team members will come armed with all sorts of exciting activities and kit to run endless fun and games for the children.

Those staying at The Dorchester will also have special access to the recently opened spa at sister hotel 45 Park Lane, welcoming children to use the 20m swimming pool between 9-11am and 3-5pm daily
