The Dorchester celebrates the Platinum Jubilee

(LONDON) To mark Her Majesty The Queen becoming the first British Monarch to celebrate a Platinum Jubilee, The Dorchester announces a series of celebrations to honour 70 years of service.

From Thursday 2 to Sunday 5 June, The Dorchester Rooftop will be dressed to celebrate the Jubilee with a menu created by chef Jean-Philippe Blondet. With views across Hyde Park, The Dorchester Rooftop is the perfect spot to watch the traditional RAF fly-past on Thursday 2nd June. Live music will be paired with tantalising cocktails and breath-taking views. A highlight from the cocktail menu will be the Purple Reign, inspired by the four countries of the United Kingdom reigned over by The Queen and created by the award winning team at The Bar at The Dorchester.

A popular tradition at The Dorchester since opening in 1931, a special themed afternoon tea will be presented by executive pastry chef Michael Kwan from Wednesday 1 to Monday 13 June. The Jubilee Afternoon Tea at The Dorchester will feature a collection of delicate pastries served alongside quintessentially British sandwiches and warm scones with The Dorchester's jam and clotted cream. Guests will enjoy tea surrounded by beautiful blooms created by in-house designer florist Philip Hammond, inspired by The Queen's favourite flowers. The Jubilee Afternoon Tea is priced at £95, including a glass of English sparkling wine and a special Jubilee cake for guests to enjoy at home.

For guests visiting neighbouring Hyde Park, The Dorchester's picnic hamper features everything you might need to enjoy in the summer sunshine. Available to order online and at The Dorchester's coffee shop Parcafé, the hamper features: sweet Jubilee lemonade; smoked salmon
