DISCOVER LONDON

With its unique and vibrant blend of history and culture, London offers visitors an eclectic range of museums, galleries, public parks and attractions. As one of the gourmet capitals of the world, new restaurants, clubs and bars are opening in London all the time, so there are plenty of reasons to come back again and again.

ARTS & CULTURE

Widely regarded as a hotbed of contemporary artistic practice, London has hundreds of small private galleries located in and around Mayfair and St James. A vibrant gallery scene is also flourishing further east in Shoreditch and Hackney, while the Frieze Art Fair takes place every October in nearby Regent’s Park.

Major collections and exhibitions can be seen at the Saatchi Gallery, Tate Modern, Tate Britain, the National Gallery, National Portrait Gallery, Royal Academy of Arts and the Design Museum. London also has a rich selection of museums - many of which are only a short distance from the hotel, such as the British Museum, Victoria and Albert Museum (V&A), Natural History Museum and the Science Museum.

THEATRE & MUSIC

Many of London’s West End theatres, the Royal Albert Hall, Royal Opera House and the English National Opera are just a short ride from the hotel. Shakespeare’s Globe, The National Theatre and the Southbank Centre are all nearby.

ATTR ACTIONS

The Dorchester is close to the majority of London’s most popular attractions such as Buckingham Palace, the Houses of Parliament, Big Ben and Westminster Abbey. Located opposite 45 Park Lane, Hyde Park is the city’s largest Royal Park. It’s home to the Diana, Princess of Wales, Memorial Fountain and the Serpentine Gallery. Visitors can also enjoy a range of leisure activities including jogging, tennis, horse-riding, and boating on the Serpentine.

SHOPPING

Near the hotel, discover London’s most exclusive shopping areas such as New Bond Street, Old Bond Street, South Molton Street, Knightsbridge, Sloane Square and Chelsea. With a wide range of leading brands, high street names and specialist retail outlets, Oxford Street, Regent Street, Piccadilly and Covent Garden are also within walking distance.

BARS & RESTAURANTS

Within easy reach of London’s finest bars and restaurants, guests are in an ideal position to sample London’s culinary delights. From fine dining to international cuisine, London is home to some of the world’s most acclaimed chefs. With an array of traditional pubs, stylish gastropubs and contemporary bars in the area, you’ll be able to take full advantage of London’s vibrant nightlife.
As one of the world’s most iconic hotels, The Dorchester is a favourite of celebrities, world leaders, royalty and high society – it is quite simply the place to be in London. Come and experience the epitome of timeless glamour.

SPA

THE DORCHESTER SPA
The Dorchester Spa exudes 1930s Art Deco glamour and contemporary design. Signature facials are by internationally renowned Carol Joy London and Aromatherapy Associates, whilst treatments by international skincare brand Kerstin Florian are offered for the first time in London. The spa features nine treatment rooms including two double suites, a manicure and pedicure suite and sleek Relaxation Room. Guests can also visit The Spatisserie for post-treatment indulgence. ROOMS & SUITES
Guests can choose from 250 individually designed rooms and suites, decorated in a rich classic English residential style. Spacious and elegant, each room features specially commissioned fabrics, bespoke furniture and exceedingly comfortable beds, while our Italian marble bathrooms feature probably the deepest baths in London. All rooms and suites feature Bang & Olufsen LCD screens and Wi-Fi internet access. Our technical guest services team are on hand to assist with technical needs.

There are 56 individually decorated suites including Art Deco Studio Suites and the recently renovated Dorchester and Park Suites, by leading designer Alexandra Champalimaud. Most suites enjoy breathtaking views over Hyde Park and many interconnect with up to five rooms.

Known collectively as the ‘roof suites’, The Audley Penthouse, The Terrace Penthouse and The Harlequin Penthouse evoke the spirit of 1930s Hollywood glamour. All three suites feature fresh, modern and luxurious interiors, outside terraces with unrivalled views over London, and a dedicated team of butlers on hand to take care of your every wish.
